Dover Free Public Library Video Policy

Patron must be 18 years of age or older. Proof of age will be requested when in question.

Limit of three (3) Dover videos active on a patron's card at any one time.

Dover Videos: Free upon check-out.

Loan period is two (2) weeks for all instructional videos (regardless of format) and children's VHS; two (2) days for all other video holdings.

Overdue charges are $0.10/day for instructional videos; $1.00/day for all others.

The maximum fine for an overdue video is $5.00. Lost videos will be billed at actual replacement cost, which must be paid in full prior to restoration of patron's library privileges.

Please re-wind. Please do not leave video in the car for an extended amount of time as this can cause damage to the video for which the patron is liable.

Videos must be returned to the Circulation Desk at the Dover Free Public Library or any Morris County library. Videos may not be returned via the Book Drop. Video materials placed in the Book Drop will incur a fine of $1.00.

Adopted by Dover Free Public Library Board of Trustees, 3/96; Revised, 4/8/2010
